ARMOR's New Editor

Just prior to going to press Lieutenant Colonel Michael A. Vargosko came on board as 32d Editor-in-Chief. His most recent assignment was with the 2d Armored Division, where he commanded the 2d Battalion, 66th Armor, which returned from Germany in August after completing a 6-month rotational Brigade 75 tour.

LTC Vargosko enlisted in the Army Reserve in June 1954 as a private in the 740th Tank Battalion in Connecticut. He was commissioned in the Regular Army in July 1959 as a Distinguished Military Graduate from the Virginia Military Institute. After completing the Armor Officer Basic Course and the Ranger and Airborne Schools, he was assigned to the 11th Armored Cavalry in Germany.

After graduating from the Armored Officer Career Course in 1964, LTC Vargosko commanded a tank company and was Battalion S-3 in the 1st Battalion, 66th Armor, 2d AD.

After MATA and the Language School at Monterey he was an advisor with the Vietnamese 10th Armored Cavalry in 1966 and 1967. Following that assignment he served as Chief of the only remaining Armor ROTC Detachment, which is located at the Virginia Military Institute.

LTC Vargosko attended the Command and General Staff College in 1969-1970. In 1970-1971 he served in Quang Tri Province, Republic of Vietnam with the 1st Brigade (Sep), 5th Infantry Division (Mech). Returning to CONUS, he was assigned to ODCSOPS in the Pentagon until May 1974. At the Pentagon he served as a Team Chief in the Army Operations Center and as an action officer in the Command and Control Division.

In 1974 LTC Vargosko was assigned to the University of Alabama and received a Masters Degree in Journalism.
